Grammar

- brun and marron - these both mean brown, but brun is used with hair and marron with eyes. Brun obeys the normal rules of agreement (agrees by gender and number of the noun it describes), but marron is invariable (never changes its form).
- In English, the indefinite article can often be omitted in the plural, but it can not be omitted in French, e.g. des chaussures = shoes.

Quiz at home

Ask your adult to look at the KO.
 Quiz them using the vocabulary and knowledge section or the quiz questions.

- Can they say the words correctly?
- Can they name 5 items of clothing in French?
- Can your adult tell what the weather is like?
- Compete with your adult in the quiz. Who can fill in all the blanks correctly first?

Match the weather to the correct picture.

il y a du soleil

il fait chaud

il y a du vent

il fait froid

il pleut

il neige

Match the weather to the appropriate piece of clothing.
Some items might fit more than one type of weather.
