Overview and facts

'We are TV chefs'
Do you or your friends in your class enjoy cooking? Would you like to perform in front of a video camera? This half term, you will be producing short videos of yourselves following a simple recipe for a healthy meal or snack.

By the end of the term, you will be able to:
- to use different features of a video camera
- to use a video camera to capture moving images
- share ideas and listen to others when working as part of a group to produce a video (collaboration skills)
- to discuss your work and think about whether it could be improved.

Things to remember when you are presenting (getting recorded):
1. make your presentation fun, engaging, and enjoyable.
2. Stick to the time you have been given.
3. Keep things simple and to the point.
4. Move around and use your hands.
5. Speak clearly to the camera.

Books
Carle, E. (2002). The Very Hungry Caterpillar, Puffin
French, V. (1995). Oliver's Vegetables. Hodder's Children's' Books
Ladybird (1999). Goldilocks and the Three Bears. Ladybird

Why not try this at home?

You could visit a local supermarket or greengrocer to investigate the different fruit and vegetables that are sold, and compare the types of technology used in such an environment today (electronic till, telephone, electronic scales).

E-safety

Remember - don't post any personal information online – like your address, email address or mobile number.
Always - think carefully before posting pictures or videos of yourself. Once you've put a picture of yourself online most people can see it and may be able to download it, it's not just yours anymore.
Most importantly - if you see something online that makes you feel uncomfortable, unsafe or worried: leave the website, turn off your computer if you want to and tell a trusted adult immediately.
