Dear parents and carers of Fox Class

I am writing to give you an update on the teaching provision for Fox Class. As you will be aware, Mrs Stewart has been absent from school for this week. Mrs Stewart's illness is likely to continue for the foreseeable future. I am sure you will all join me in hoping Mrs Stewart has a speedy recovery and wish her well over the next few weeks.

Mrs Saleem will continue to teach the class during this period, being supported by Ms Lewis, the Head of Year. The children will be taught the same lessons and content as the rest of the year group.

If you have any enquiries regarding your child or the class this term, please contact the school office and someone will get back in touch with you.

With my best wishes

David Sansom
